

RTIRN Regional Workshop, June 16, 2010
Cuernavaca, México

Host: Instituto Nacional de Salud Pública

Venue:

Topic: Pedestrian Injuries Research in Low- and Middle- Income Countries

| Theme 1: Burden and Risk Factors | | | Chair |
|---|---|--------------------------|------------------|
| 11:00-12:00 | 1. Pedestrian injuries in low and middle income countries. | Meleckidzedeck Khayesi | Adnan |
| | 2. Cost of pedestrian injuries. | Leticia Ávila | |
| | 3. Risk factors for pedestrian injuries and outcomes. | Martha Hajar | |
| 12:00-12:30 | Panel Discussion | | |
| Theme 2: Pedestrian safety: Best practices and promising interventions | | | Chair |
| 13:30-14:30 | 1. Successfully safety interventions against pedestrian injuries. | Lic. Hugo Barrera Muciño | Olive Kobusingye |

| | | | |
|-------------|---|------------------|--|
| | 2. Country-specific efforts and experiences in pedestrian safety. | Bernardo Baranda | |
| | 3. Questions to answer (yet) by researching pedestrian injuries. | Hamid Soori | |
| 14:30-15:00 | Panel Discussion | | |

Theme 3: Research and Capacity Building

| | | | |
|--------------------|--|---------------------|---------------|
| 15:30- 16:30 | 1. Study designs for assessing risk factors and effectiveness of intervention. | Shanthi Ameratunga | Rebecca Ivers |
| | 2. Principles of intervention evaluation. | Olive Kobusingye | |
| | 3. Building capacities in pedestrian injury epidemiology and control. | Alfredo Celis | |
| 16:30-17:00 | Panel Discussion | | |
| 17:00-17:30 | Closing Remarks | Chair, RTIRN | |
